Happy Daze Farm Celebrates over 30 years of Summer Camp

Happy Daze Farm will offer three sessions of camp this year. Students will take part in a group lesson each day. In addition to riding, campers will acquire basic horse care knowledge. It is our goal that each camper will develop new riding skills and learn the importance of horsemanship. Happy Daze Farm is dedicated to providing a safe, nurturing and fun environment for all.

Stable Management

Students will learn to feed, groom, and care for their ponies and tack. They will play horse related games and participate in arts and crafts. Advanced students will participate in clinics on first aid, bandaging, braiding, clipping and lunging.

Meet the Staff

Pamela Rich, founding director and owner has been teaching riding and horsemanship for over 40 years. Happy Daze Farm reflects Pam's dedication to helping children grow and learn with her love of horses.

Shelby Quinn, Pam's daughter, grew up at Happy Daze Farm and had the great opportunity to ride since she was a small child. With over 15 years of experience teaching horseback riding and nine years as an elementary school teacher, she is delighted to combine her love of horses with her passion for teaching children. Shelby graduated from UVM in 2003 with a Bachelor's in Animal Science and from Union Institute and University in 2010 with a Master of Education degree. Shelby, her husband, John, and their two children, Kennedy and Calvin, live on a small farm in Northfield.

Pam and Shelby make a dynamic team. Their philosophies of teaching promote responsibility, horsemanship, teamwork, friendship and fun.
